

Person – Centred Planning Facilitator – Introductory Day

Venue: Kingsley Village Fraddon

Times: 9:30 a.m. start

Date: 29th January 2009

Are you trying to support people to implement person-centred planning? Are you wanting to develop your skills in facilitating person centred planning? Then join us during this one day event.

Who is this training for?

- Those who want to go on the Foundation for People with Learning Disabilities' Advanced Facilitator Course – this course is a pre-requisite.
- Those who manage services and are responsible for the implementation of person-centred plans.
- Those whose responsibility it is to support facilitators in person-centred planning.
- Those who are responsible for developing person-centred ways of working within services.
- Self-advocates, families, advocates, staff etc.

Overview of the Day

The focus of the day is to provide instruction regarding key principles of person-centred planning as applied through various person centred planning tools. Participants will develop their skills in person-centred planning through a series of guided exercises, completed in pairs with fellow participants. Through directed conversation, listening and sorting information, and writing down what they have learned about their partner, participants will practice the skills required when developing plans. At the end of the day participants will have a first plan that they have completed.

NB: This event is not for those who have been to a facilitator training course in person centred planning. You should have attended an Person Centred Approaches day and a Person Centred Thinking Day

You will be provided with lunch, refreshments and a conference pack.
